DEFENDANTS

ORDER

On de novo review, the Court adopts Magistrate Judge Volpe's recommendation, Doc. 168, and overrules Boyd's objections, Doc. 176. FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b)(3). Boyd continues in his objections to question the treatment he received for ulcerative colitis; he doesn't dispute that he received treatment. To make out a constitutional violation, he must present more than a difference of opinion. Barr v. Pearson, 909 F.3d 919, 921-22 (8th Cir. 2018). He has failed to do so. The motion for summary judgment, Doc. 147, is granted. Boyd's deliberate indifference claims against Rechcigl, Kimble, Kerstein and Drummond will be dismissed with prejudice. An in forma pauperis appeal from this Order and accompanying Judgment would not be taken in good faith. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3).

So Ordered.
